Work history or related experience:

I am a retiree of Frontier Regional School District where I was employed from June of 1986 until December 31, 2019. During those 33½ years, I worked as Accounts Payable for the 4 union schools, Payroll Officer for all 5 Regional schools, Insurance Enrollment Processor, and Scholarship accountant. In my last nine years I was also the Treasurer of Frontier Regional School.

Describe what you know about the role of a board member:

Besides my most recent term on the board (March of 2025-Dec 2024) I also served as a board member from 2016-2018. I ~~had~~ have had considerable experience with the duties of the committee. From decision making regarding investment matters, staff issues, disability claims, and other issues regarding the future of the FRRS and its members.

Explain your interest in serving as a member of the board:

I enjoy working with the other board members on the topics that arise. I'd like to continue to serve the members of the system to ensure a dependable and secure future. As a retiree of the system I appreciate the opportunity to give back to my community.
